Ten Years for Johnson. John Silas Marshall Johnson, convicted of manslaughter, was yesterday brought before Justice James, in the Criminal Court, for sentence. The attendance was small, and there was little interest manifested in the closing proceedings of the case. Assistant District Attorney Perry, representing the Government, and Messrs. Williams and Fall, of the counsel for the defense, were present. Shortly after the court convened Mr. Perry moved for sentence in the case of Johnson, and the prisoner was placed at the bar.

"Have you anything to say?" asked His Honor. ig, responded Johnson. "Then I will proceed to pronounce the sentence without further comment," said the Judge. " The sentence of the court is that you be imprisoned in the Auburn State Prison, at Auburn, in the State of New York, for a period of ten years, and that took place at Lincoln Hall last evening in the presyou be fined $1,000."

Mr. Williams excepted to the sentence imposed.

Also that he unlawfully seized goods from one party under an attachment against another, took them to Georgetown, and sold them. The court issued a rule for him to show cause why he should not be dismissed, and made it returnable on the 14th instant.

Resigned and Going Away. Captain John A. Partridge, the District surveyor, yesterday transmitted his resignation to the Commissioners, to take effect immediately, in order to enable him to accept the position of engineer on the western division of the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad, running from Syrause to Buffalo. Captain Partridge has a most extended experience in railroad engineering, and is a very compotent and affable gentleman. The Syracuse Veteran Corps last evening serenaded Congressman Frank Hiscock at the Arlington Hotel, and elicited a happy speech from that gentleman. Justice James discharged his petit jury for the term yesterday, and the only business to be performed to-day will be the arraignment of parties recently indicted.

Judge Kinsman, of Warren, Ohio, a life-long friend of General Garfield, is a guest at the National. The Judge will remain in the city until after the inauguration. Mrs. Maria Louisa Reed, widow of the late B. W. Reed, died yesterday morning, at her residence, on M street, near Ninth street, in the fifty-seventh year of her age. Billy Emerson and Billy Rice have kindly consented to loan their sparks to the local oree of THE REPUBLICAN on inauguration night as flash-lights, to see the crowd.

George W. Heller was yesterday committed on the charge of being a suspicious character, having been caught in an attempt to effect an entrance into the rooms of Representative Camp at the Arlington. The "people's" concert at the North Presbyterian Church last night was thoroughly enjoyed by those present. The programme was carefully selected and the performers all acquitted themselves in a most satisfactory manner. The performance at the National Thestre will begin at 6:45 p. m. to-morrow, in order that it may be concluded in time to permit the audience to witness the pyrotechnic display, which takes place on the Avenue at half-past nine o'clock.

White, West Virginia; Mrs. and Miss Pulsifer, Philadelphia; C. H. H. Bullock, Manchester, N. H.; A. S. The National Rifles held a special meeting last evening for the purpose of electing active members. Seven applicants, having re-ceived a satisfactory examination by the recruitng committee, were favorably reported and John Downs, a hostler in the employ of Adams Express Company, was yesterday kicked by a horse in the stable, receiving a compound complex fracture of the left arm. Dr. Townshend set the broken limb, but it will be some time beore the man is able to use it. Hon. John Paul, member-elect from the Seventh Virginia District; J. D. Price, Dr. J. A. Jones, C. W. Fellows, E. A. Shands, Captain James Burgess, John Dean, T. W. Jones, of the Valley of Virginia, and John T. Miles, of Erie, Pa., are stopping at the corner of Twelfth and F streets.

Mrs. Emily T. Charles, a lady who, under the nom de plume of "Emily Hawthorne," has become quite extensively known, will de-liver her address entitled "Woman Esthetically Considered," and will also give recitations from her poems at Lincoln Hall on Saturday night. The examining committee yesterday approved the following applications for liquor lienses: Luther M. Cornwall, corner Maryland avenue and Tenth street southwest; Franklin Lowe, 400 New Jersey avenue northwest; Bernard Mullan, 2609 Pennsylvania avenue; Henry Meckel, 735 Seventh street northwest; Daniel J. Hartigan, 31 High street, Georgetown.

Marriage licenses have been issued as follows: Robert Burrus, of Fredericksburg, Va., and Annie M. Steele, of Boston, Mass.; Lewis C. Hawkins, of this city, and Maggie A. Valentine, of New York city; Charles Graham and Alice Dent, John E. Vemeier and Virginia Parker, James S. F. Smith, of Prince George's County, Maryland, and Lizzie Hodson, of this city; James E. Miller and Ida M. Jacobs. Officer Offutt, of the Seventh Precinct. arrested a stranger last night who was acting in a disorderly manner at the corner of Second and C treets northwest. On the way to the station the er drew a knife and cut the officer severely in the face, but despite his injury Offutt lodged his man behind the bars. The prisoner gave his name as Robert Fowler and stated that he beonged in Pittsburg, Pa. Miss Frances E. Willard, the talented advocate of temperance and President of the National Womans' Christian Temperance Union, is in the city. She will speak at different places in the city, and take a prominent part in the exercises attending the presentation of the "Temperance Testimonial"—the painting of Mrs. Hayes—which is to be presented by the temperance women of the country to Mr. Garfield as the Nation's representative, and hung in the White House to commemoate her noble stand for temperance.

A wrong impression seems to have obained in reference to the object of the Washington Light Infantry in seeking to obtain the use of the Museum building on Monday night. It was not intended to make any money out of its use, but to extend a complimentary reception and ball to all the visiting military organizations, and a large amount of money had already been subscribed for that purpose. It is to be regretted that this lauda-ble intention on the part of our local corps has been frustrated through a misapprehension. The reception, could it be effected, would be a most brilliant affair, and would be a just courtesy to our visiting military guests.
